3-3-1944

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #347

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Jack P., "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #347" (1944). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 349. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/349

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, O.Hio

MAR 5
3:30 PM
1944
Darling Fink,

What a sweet letter I got from my honey yesterday. You sure write swell ones, honey. I also got a letter from Chuck. He said he'd just returned from the next camp, and he had 21 missions completed. I hope it won't be too long before he gets back to the states.

I'm sorry to hear that Frank is beating his brains out over the deal the Army is giving him. The best thing to do is take it all as a big joke, and let it go at that. Better days are coming for all of us.

It makes me feel swell to know that you are comfortable, honey. We sure love our little home, don't we, darling? We'll be so happy in it together when this mess is all over.

Sweetie, I love you so. We certainly do have lots of wonderful memories. I often think of how we used to go places, and how proud I always am of you. How beautiful your eyes are when you look at me, and baby, "I love you." The good times we used to have just looking around the house on my days off, Baby, we have so much to look forward to.

I got a letter from Bill and Dolly today. I hope they don't call him for a long time.

I hope you liked your card and gift, darling. Maybe next year we'll be able to have a real celebration together.

Well, darling it seems as tho' I just can't
I can't write a decent letter anymore.
All my love to my darling sweetheart.
your own,
Jack
Pvt. J. P. Bell 35052495
78th. Sig. Co. A.P.O. 78 Free
C/O Pst. Mstr. Nashville, Tenn. [[Image: Postmark stamp with printed text:
“NASHVILLE / TENN.” encircling date:
MAR 5 / 330 PM / 1944”]]

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio
Darling Fink,

What a sweet letter I got from my honey yes – terday. You sure write swell ones, honey. I also got a letter from Chuck. He said he’d just returned from the rest camp, and he had 21 missions completed. I hope it wont [sic] be too long before he gets back to the states.

I’m sorry to hear that Frank is beating his brains out over the deal the army’s giving him. The best thing to do is take it all as a big joke, and let it go at that. Better days are coming for all of us.

It makes me feel swell to know that you are comfortable, honey. We sure love our little home, don’t we, darling? We’ll be so happy in it together when this mess is all over.

Sweetie, I love you so. We certainly do have lots of wonderful memories. I often think of how we used to go places, and how proud I allways [sic] am of you. How beautiful your eyes are when you look at me, and say, “I love you”.
The good times we us[ed] to have just loafing around the house on my days off. Baby, we have so much to look forward to.

I got a letter from Bill and Dolly today. I hope they don’t call him for a long time.

I hope you liked your card and gift, darling.
Maybe next year we’ll be able to have a real celebration together.

Well, darling it seems as tho’ I just can’t
[Page 3 – Letter continued]

write a decent letter anymore.

   All my love to my darling sweetheart.

   Your lover,

   [[underscore]] Jack [[/underscore]]