VICTOR BORGE

Greenwich,
May 7th, 1987

Dear Henri —

Your sentiments about my performance made me very happy, and your desire to attend the (perhaps strange) presentation of my condensed version of CARMEN (on Thursday, the 28th of May at eight o'clock in the Orange County Performing Arts Center) delighted me.

Your two seats will be secured in form of tickets at the box office, and as my guests I hope you and Emmy will share in the enjoyment that at least I will feel at the podium.

If not snowed under during rehearsals in Santa Barbara from Monday till showtime, I'll call you. Perhaps we can sneak in another tête à tête.

In admiration, as ever,
and with kindest regards,

~~Victor~~
