Dear Victor:

I am distressed to learn that the special set of Jubilee cassettes has gone astray. For obvious reasons, I had chosen the set marked "#80" out of the 100 numbered and autographed sets. This time I am sending you an unnumbered set by certified mail in order to make sure that you receive it. We also are having the disappearance of the other set investigated by the Post Office. Should it show up belatedly, please let me know.

After all this, I hope you will like the recordings and will give me your greatly valued opinion.

With warmest regards,

*Your ever
Helen*
