Wed Mar 15,

Dearest Darling,

no matter how hard I try I can never seem to be able to manage to go to bed before midnight. And it is midnight already.

I went to the show to-night with Dolly & Lena. I wanted to iron, but I was too tired and I thought perhaps a show might relax me and then I stopped up to Lena's and had a sandwich and before I knew it, it was almost midnight. So that's how my time passes.

To-day when I came home for lunch Phil drove me home and Lena came along too and so I asked them both up for a cup of coffee and so they both came up with me and then when it was time to come back Phil drove me back. It was nice to have some one here with me while I ate. Sometimes it's kind of lonely eating alone. That's one thing I miss in not having you around. At night, sometimes I get kind of hungry, but I hate to fix something just for me alone. But if you were here I wouldn't mind it.

Darling, I hope I'm not getting too optimistic but I am so looking forward to your coming home.

Oh Baby it's going to be swell to be in your arms again. And you will kiss and caress me in just the way I love. Sweetheart, I love you so very much, you are so dear to me.

Darling, I must be getting to bed before I fall asleep on this letter.
I'm sending you bushels of hugs and kisses and all my love, yours
Gene
