Dear Sir or Madam:

Victor Borge, the great Danish comedian, will be celebrating his eightieth birthday next January 3, 1989. I believe millions of people will be interested in reading a tribute about a man who has brought so much joy into their lives over the past half-century, and who continues his international activities to this day.

The enclosed article will be published in Musical America in November, and I have retained all rights to the article, including those of reprint. Please advise whether you would consider using it in the Reader's Digest.

Yours sincerely,

Henri Temianka
