Dear Henri:

Having just returned home from a 7-week concert tour of Europe I re-read with great pleasure your un-answered (involuntarily) letter of May 7th and am melting in delight over your sentiments in praise of my performance.

Also I enjoyed our meeting and exchange of thoughts and experiences after the concert, and be assured that I too am looking forward to our next encounter.

Hopeful that it will be soon I send warmest regards from home to home.

Ever yours,
