Dearest Darling,

Mar 22. '47

Well, I finally went to work to-day. But I still have a cough, but you know me I never end up a cold unless I cough a couple of days so I think my cold is much better.

I went to the show to-night with Ida. We saw two fair pictures. But the one thing that tickled me was no one ~~and~~ of the pictures they had a character by the name of Jack Bell. He was an old guy but it tickled me allright.

It was kind of nice to get back to work, but I still think I prefer house keeping to any of them. So Darling when you come home to stay for good you can fire me off whatever job I'm at and I shall be very happy. I sure do love to keep house for you and make your meals and help you contend. Sometimes when I look back on those happy times it all seems like a dream. Darling, I just knew we were too happy to last. It seems as though one must have a certain amount of sadness to go along with so much happiness and we had so much happiness crammed into our two years of married life we were to gether.

I'm glad we got a chance to do all the things we did. There isn't much we missed is there Darling? and soon we will be back again to gether doing all the things we love to do.

Dearest, we have so much to look forward to. We have a lifetime of happiness ahead to gether. you are such a wonderful partner to share my road of life with.
Sweetheart, when we grow old to gether, just think of all the glorious memories we have to store away in our hearts. But now I'm thinking of while we are still young. you are such a wonderful lover. When you kiss me, it always thrills me so. And I always love to lie in your arms and have you caress me, your touch is always so tender. Darling, when you come home love me as you have never loved before. I want to feel your body close to mine and I want your lips on mine, Oh Sweetheart what a thrill we have to look forward to. Darling I love you so much and I want to show it in every way I can think of. I want you to know that I'm yours completely, heart body and soul.

I guess I had better be getting to bed now Sweetheart, all my
