GREETINGS: dear Emmy & Henri -

The history of this Danish Calendar is explained in a November 21st letter from the publishers.

Dear Victor Borge:

It is my pleasure to convey to you our gratitude because you let us persuade you to continue the tradition regarding the Calendar of the Year in Denmark. Through many years the Calendar has had reknown Danish authors and artists as editors.

The 1991 Calendar was prepared by Her Majesty the Queen. And we are delighted that it is particularly you who did succeed Denmark's regent in the line of editors.

One hundred-fifty thousand copies of the calendar have been printed, in Denmark an unprecedented quantity.

De venligste hilsner

Uffe Thunstrup

For your convenience I have converted to English my contributions to the Calendar. The introduction by Niels-Jørgen Kaiser, Managing Director of the famous Tivoli Gardens in Copenhagen, has been translated by Vibeke Røhr Lauritzen.

With Twelve Cheers,
and warmest regards to the entire dynasty ... from
