My dear Victor:

I have always been convinced that one cannot start an 80th birthday celebration too soon. Based on this belief, I have completed a tribute to you which, hopefully, will be published at the appropriate moment. Furthermore, I am sending you, under separate cover, copy #80 of my own set of Jubilee recordings issued in celebration of my 80th birthday, limited to 100 sets. I am saving #90 and #100 to be delivered to you at a later date.

In the hope that you will approve of these initiatives, I am, as always,

Your devoted friend,

Henri

Dear Victor, just finished talking with Tom.
I do hope the set of my six Jubilee recordings will turn up. They range from my earliest 1935 recording to 1984! Let me know what you think of them, especially if they show up.
