Dearest Sweetheart,

Mar 27-44

I just came from Dolly's. She is making me a suit and I went down to get a fitting. I do believe it's going to be beautiful. It's very plain but that's the beauty of it.

I got the sweetest letter from you to-day, Darling, it was a nice long one. I enjoyed it so much. I read it over several times and I even read parts of it to Bill & Dolly. Of course there are certain parts for me alone to read. and no one else does read them either.

Bill is still waiting for his call. I hope it doesn't come for a long time. I told Bill about snafu and now he goes around and everything is snafu. You know how Bill is. When he gets stuck on a certain word he uses that word continually.

I paid the gas and electric bill to-day. Last month I forgot to pay the electric bill until it was about a week over-due so I figured I had better pay it early and get it over with.

Did I tell you that Ken Stalker was in the army? He left about a month ago. I don't know exactly where he is now. I wonder what his wife is doing. I sure do feel sorry for them. They worked so hard to have a home and now it's broke up.

Well, Sweetheart, it's getting late so I'd better cut this short.
All my love and a million kisses,

Your Own,

Frank.
