VICTOR BORGE

Greenwich,
October 30, 1989

Dear Henri —

Disappointed that we're not playing as planned, I am delighted nonetheless to accept your invitation for dinner.

Still, and more and more, embarrassed about the drawn-out finalizing of the DOCUMENTARY (Would you believe it is not completed yet in Sweden??!! A fact that I, unfortunately, cannot control except that I have eliminated certain segments resulting from a quite bitter feud), I have just visited Sweden, and they are at last finishing the final -- and to me fairly acceptable -- version.

Looking forward to my visit, I will be happy to provide tickets if Emmy and you and/or some friends would care to attend the concert which is at two o'clock. Please call Jim Colias as I meanwhile will be, as usual, on the road.

With love and admiration,
