SERVICE CLUB
CAMP PICKETT, VIRGINIA

Tuesday April 4

Dearest Baby,

Looks like I have some not too pleasant news tonite, honey. It's really not so bad, but furloughs were supposed to start tomorrow, but now they've been postponed till next Monday. I thought I might be able to start mine sometime next week. Maybe it will be a few days longer. Anyway will keep our fingers crossed, sweetie.

This is really a dandy service club. I just got thru' reading yesterday's Cleveland Plain Dealer. They have copies of most all big city papers here. This camp, as a whole, I believe, is better than Butner.

What kind of weather are you having around home these days, honey? Sunday, when you called, it was beautiful here - warm and sunny. Yesterday and today it's been a little cool, but clear. I'll sure be glad to see summer come. It's my favorite season.

Mail call passed me by today, but I can't complain. I usually always get one from you, and some days two, and how I love to get letters from my baby. You write such swell ones, darling. Almost like you're right beside me talking to me.

Looks like this is all I know for tonite, sweetie. Keep your chin up, honey, this furlough business will come out o.k. All my love, and bushels of hugs and kisses,

Your Own,
Jack
