Dear Mr. Temianka,

Hope you had a lovely holiday and are now having a great New Year!

I have a question? Are you planning to program the Roy Travis "Switched-on Ashanti" on either of the two programs in April- the Oceanside concert or the Getty concert? I didn't notice it listed on either information sheet that was sent out, although the programs look very nice indeed! At any rate, the piece is very difficult, very avant-garde, and I simply must get down to business and get it learned if you intend to program it. I know Roy Travis thinks it is programmed, but whatever you would like is fine with me, if you will just speak to him in the event you don't decide to program it.

I enjoyed making music with you in December, and am looking forward to it in April. I have enclosed my review from Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung- we hit the jackpot!

All best regards,

Bonnie
