Dear Henri:

Your charming note of thanks was totally unnecessary!

It was such a joy, a privilege, to be up on that stage in front of all those happy kids saying those words to that superb music.

I felt very fortunate. In the middle of the performance it overwhelmed me; tears filled my eyes. Aren't I the luckiest man in the world, I thought.

Lucky to have friends like you and Emmy.

Hoping to come by late next week, when I finish my lecture in Long Beach.

I thank you, Henri!

Ray
