Dearest darling,

About all I can tell you tonite, I guess, is that I'm o.k. and feeling fine. Someday I'll tell you all about it.

I suppose by this time you are in Henderson, darling. Herie's hoping you have nice weather for your trip home.

Keep your chin up, sweetie. One of these fine days this mess will be all over, and then we'll make all our dreams come true.

So long for now, honey. I'll try and write more next time. I love you,
Your Own,
Jack
