Dearest Sweetheart,

Please forgive me for slipping up on the writing, but I'll try to do better from now on thru'.

I'm going to mail this to Henderson, honey on the chance that you are still there. I think from now on I'll mail them home as I suppose you will be there in a few days. Say hells to Sis and Art for me.

Have you received a letter from the people who are renting our place? I'd like to know if they are going to stay until the first of January. Anyway you can have all your mail forwarded to Pa and Aunt Celia's so you'll get all your mail on time. This moving around sure is a mess, isn't it?

I hope I get a chance to see a bit of New York City while I'm here. Of course it ~~would~~ be more fun if we were together, but someday sweetie, we'll really go places, and do things just like we did before.

These shorts you sewed the grippers on are really swell, honey. Thanks a million.

I guess that's all I know for this trip, darling. All my love, and lots of kisses,
Your own, Jack Good night Sweetheart,
