Dearest Darling,

Your first letter came today, and it sure was nice to hear from you.

The last letter I mailed to you I addressed to Pa's place. Perhaps they'll forward it to you. I sort of figured you had left Henderson already.

I was in New York Saturday. Didn't get to see too much, but was glad of the chance to get in. The Stage Door Canteen is sort of a letdown after reading so much about it. It seems rather small, crowded, and definitely mediocre.

Glad you're having a nice visit, sweetie. Say hello to everyone for me.

I'll bet it's really a job packing these gifts for Chuck and Jim. They'll appreciate it. Have you heard from Jim. Is he back in action? There was a write up about his division in the current issue of York magazine.

So Frank is catching a lot of mite work? It's too bad Florence can't be with him.

Are you staying at Norwich's or with Sis?
I wish we were both down there just visiting like that vacation so long ago. That was just two years ago this week. Remember?

How is our car running, honey? I hope you have a nice trip with good weather
all the way thru'.

Well, dearest my letters seem to get worse and worse, but I like to tell you I love you, and think of you allways. Take care of yourself, honey.

Loads of hugs and kisses

Your own,

Jack
