10-14-1944

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #404

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Dearest Sweetheart,

Here goes my first V mail letter. Of course I won't be able to mail it till we land, but maybe I'll be able to write several by that time.

The accommodations aboard ship are much better than I thought they'd be. The breeze is nice and fresh upon deck.

I met one of the fellows I came into the army with. Hadn't seen him for over a year. His wife lives in Elyria.

Darling, I love you so. It will be such a happy day when this mess is all over, and we can be together for keeps. Life together is so wonderful, sweetie. Keep your chin up, honey.

I'll mail this up now, sweetie, and try to write more tomorrow. All my love to the sweetest wife in all the world.

Yours always,

Jack
Sat. Oct. 14, 1944

Dearest Sweetheart,

Here goes my first V mail letter. Of course I wont [sic] be able to mail it till we land, but maybe I'll be able to write several by that time.

The accommodations [sic] aboard ship are much better than I thought they'd be. The breeze is nice and fresh up on deck.

I met one of the fellows I came into the army with. Hadn't seen him for over a year. His wife lives on Wooster St. in Elyria.

Darling, I love you so. It will be such a happy day when this mess is all over, and we can be together for keeps. Life together is so wonderful, sweetie. Keep your chin up, honey.

I'll wind this up now, sweetie, and try to write more tomorrow. All my love to the sweetest wife in all the world,

Yours allways [sic],

[[underscore]] Jack [[/underscore]]