Darling Wife,

Can't think of anything new to write, but I'm feeling fine, and everything is going along smoothly.

The mail has sort of slowed up. Haven't had any for several days. I suppose from now on thru' it will come in bunches.

This town isn't too much different than American towns. Lots of automobiles, and very good buses.

I miss you, darling. Someday this will make up for all the time we've been apart. So long for now, sweetie. Lots of hugs and kisses.

*Your Son,
Jack*
