Dear Henri and friends at the Allegro Ball: I wish I could be with you for your festive night, but I am on my way to the Moon again, with stopovers in San Luis Obispo, and Imperial, California, if you can believe that, before heading to Houston to meet the astronauts once more.

Henri, you surely can sympathize with my dreams of Space Travel, because for many years now you and the Chamber Symphony have taken us earthbound music-lovers far out of this world with your combined talents.

Good luck on your journey to Menotti Country this night. Will see most of you on my return.

Much love,

Ray Bradbury
