HÔTEL MEURICE

Dear Emmy and Henri:

How wonderful to have your kind birthday wishes today, August 22nd. It makes me wish all the more that our paths had crossed somehow in the past few weeks, in Europe. Maggie and I talk about both of you constantly and say that, of all the people we know, you are the special ones we would love to turn a corner in Paris and happen upon!

We'll be home in late September, and will call you for a get together. Much love from Maggie and love and thanks from me on this special day in my life. Yours, with gratitude,

Bradbury
August 22nd, 1980

P.S. As usual, I left home with much undone, so could you possibly, please, ask your secretaries to hold 2 tickets for the new season for Mag and myself, plus 4 tickets for the new Getty Museum concerts. In both cases, this means for the entire Season, of course. Sorry to bother you with this. I'll call the ticket-secretary on my return to retire the account! Much thanks! R.
