11-15-1944

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #421

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

Bell, Jack P., "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #421" (1944). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 423. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/423

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Mrs. Jack Bell
508 West Street
Elyria, Ohio
Nov. 15, 1944
in England

Dearest Darling,

Please excuse me for not writing the last couple days, sweetie. There just isn't much to write about around here.

We have a nice fire here this evening. It sure feels good as it's very cool and damp here. Darby is writing to his wife, and the other two boys have gone out so it's quiet and restful.

I suppose by now you are home again. Your visit in Detroit sounded like lots of fun, Darling. I'm glad you got to see your sisters. How is your gasoline holding out, honey? Did you get the new A book as soon as you got back to Elyria?

You said in one of your letters that you might sell that extra tire. I suppose you might as well because we really won't need it. Let me know how you make out on it, sweetie.

Have you seen the picture "Double Indemnity" with Fred MacMurray and Barbara Stanwyck? It's a swell show. I saw it the other night. They have very nice movie houses. They usually have a restaurant right inside the theatre. You can smoke if you like. It's all for comfort. They show mostly American made films. Usually they're a trifle old.

This stationery is some that was in the box Chuck received from Bill, and brought here with him. I've been buying the stamped air mail envelopes as they are more convenient than fumbling around with loose stamps. The actual cost of the envelopes is only a quarter of a cent.

Well, baby dear I've spent the whole evening writing this and it still isn't a very good letter, but I'll try to do better on the next one. All my love, and lots of kisses.

Your own, Jack
Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
78th. Signal Co. A.P.O. 78
C/O Pst. Mstr. New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
508 West Street
Elyria, Ohio

Lt RW Lowe
Dearest Darling,

Please excuse me for not writing the last couple days, sweetie. There just isn’t much to write about around here.

We have a nice fire here this evening. It sure feels good as it’s very cool and damp here. Burley is writing to his wife, and the other two boys have gone out so it’s quiet and restful.

I suppose by now you are home again. Your visit in Detroit sounded like lots of fun, darling. I’m glad you got to see your sisters. How is your gasoline holding out, honey? Did you get the new A book as soon as you got back to Elyria?

You said in one of your letters that you might sell that extra tire. I suppose you might as well because we really won’t need it. Let me know how you make out on it, sweetie.

Have you seen the picture, “Double Indemnity[”] with Fred MacMurray and Barbara Stanwyk? It’s a swell show. I saw it the other nite. They have very nice movie houses. They usually have a restaurant right inside the theatre. You can smoke if you like. It’s all for comfort. They show mostly American made films. Usually they’re a trifle old.

This stationery is some that was in the box Chuck received from Bill, and brought here with him. I’ve been buying the stamped air mail envelopes as they are more convenient than fooling around with loose stamps. The actual cost of the envelope is only a quarter of a cent.

Well, baby dear I’ve spent the whole evening writing this, and it still isn’t a very good letter, but I’ll try to do better on the next one. All my love, and lots of kisses.

Your Own,

[underscore] Jack [/underscore]