Dearest Friend,

At last the mail is catching up with me, and it looks as tho' V-mail is the best bet for speedy delivery. In addressing this to Louis as you said you had moved in with her, are you going into our place the first of January as you'd planned?

Howev, if you can get me some cigarettes I'd appreciate them. Any brand will do. My ration here isn't quite enough. If you can't get them don't worry about it as the situation may be improved. I know it's hard to get them at home these days.

Let me know what kind of paper you choose for the apartment, darling.

I'll write you regular letters from time to time, but I thought this might get to you a little sooner.

In sending you a million hugs and kisses,
Your Own,
Jack
