12-1-1944

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #427

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Jack P., "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #427" (1944). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 429.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/429

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
vt. John P. Bell 35052495
78th Signal Co. A.P.O. 78
C/O Post Metr. New York, N.Y.

12-44

VIA AIR MAIL

Mrs. Jack Bell
352 1/2 West Street
Elyria, Ohio
Dec. 1, 1944
In Belgium

Dearest Sweetheart,

I wrote you a little V mail letter this morning, but you can't say very much in them so I thought I'd start this one. These take longer, but I'll keep writing some of each.

Your new dress sounds plenty yummy, honey. I sure would like to see you in it.

I can tell you a little bit about England now. I was in Bournemouth. It's quite famous as a summer resort. It's a little more prosperous than the rest of the country as a whole, and they really have a beautiful beach. There you can find some of the most modern architecture as well as some pretty old stuff. The hotel where I stayed was really a museum piece although it had been fixed up quite comfortably with showers and bathrooms.

Chuck and I found a beautiful little park which seemed to run from the beach right thru the business section. I can imagine that it would be a heck of a fine place to see in the summer time. England in the fall and winter is rather a bleak proposition. It's a miserable climate, and we were fortunate enough to have a fairly bright day when we snapped those pictures.

Fish and chips is a famous English meal do you can bet, I really enjoyed that. There were a number of cafes nearby.

I'll probably think of things to tell you about it from time to time.

Baby dear, I love you very very much. I think of you all day long, and dream of you at night. I'm sending you millions of hugs and kisses.

Yours Always,

Jack
Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
78th. Signal Co. A.P.O. 78
C/O Pst. Mstr. New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
352 1/2 West Street
Elyria, Ohio

“PASSED BY
U [[circled]] 45756 [[/circled]] S
ARMY EXAMINER”

S. G Palmer
M. of G
Dec. 1, 1944
In Belgium

Dearest Sweetheart,

I wrote you a little Vmail letter this morning, but you can’t say very much in them so I thought I’d start this one. These take longer, but I’ll keep writing some of each.

Your new dress sounds plenty yummy, honey. I sure would like to see you in it.

I can tell you a little bit about England now. I was in Bournemouth. It’s quite famous as a summer resort. It’s a little more prosperous than the rest of the country as a whole, and they really have a beautiful beach. There you can find some of the most modern architecture as well as some pretty old stuff. The hotel where I stayed was really a museum piece altho’ it had been fixed up quite comfortably with showers and bathrooms.

Chuck and I found a beautiful little park which seemed to run from the beach right thru’ the business section. I can imagine that it would be a heck of a fine place to see in the summer time. England in the fall and winter is rather a bleak proposition. It’s a miserable climate, and we were fortunate enough to have a fairly bright day when we snapped those pictures.

Fish and ships is a famous English meal so you can bet I really enjoyed that. There were a number of cafes nearby. I’ll probably think of things to tell you about it from time to time.

Baby dear, I love you very very much. I think of you all day long, and dream of you at nite. I’m sending you millions of hugs and kisses,

Yours Allways [sic],

[underscore] Jack [/underscore]