Dearest Darling,

I've just finished reading my mail.
Boy, what a haul! Eight letters from you,
Sweetie, and one from Mom and Dad.
Your letters stretched all the way from November 4 thru the 28th, but old or new
I sure love to get them.

Yes, honey I did enjoy the cartoons, especially the one in the corner, and of course you know what it reminded me of.
Wish I were around to have you hollering at me for that again.

Don't feel too badly about that job,
Sweetie. Sometimes those things are just good breaks in disguise.

Thanks for sending me Jim's address, honey. I'll write him a letter shortly. I'm glad he's recovering nicely. If I'd known where he was when I was in England I might have been able to see him.
Sure was sorry to hear about Ralph

Fowls.

Darling, you write such grand letters.
I enjoy them very much. Your letters to me are almost like having you beside me talking to me.

Honey, I can't think of anything I want. Cigarettes seem to be coming a little better so if you weren't able to get them, don't worry about it. I'm comfortable, have warm clothes, good shoes, and outside of missing you very much I feel fine.

Please excuse me for not writing the past few days, baby, but I've been busy, and I haven't had much news. The time goes fast, but usually there isn't anything really eventful to write about.

I'm wrapping up lots of hugs and kisses, darling and all my love,
Your Own,
Jack
