Dear Henry:

Thanks for your fine letter and the telegram which DID indeed reach us in the hour of our sailing.

We had a fine smooth voyage...incredibly smooth and beautiful... the final night the ocean was a perfect soft swell of black oil, not a ripple nor a wave on it...something out of Conrad's South Seas...and the moon rising perfect over the black marble surface

London looks fine...I love just walking here...and all the book stores!...!

We will be at this address until July 26th, when we head South to Rome.

Maggie arrived safely, by jet, this morning...

Lots of opera, ballet, plays going on here, as always... makes my mouth water just to read the TIMES.

Hope you all have a great summer, also, and some fabulous travels...!

Mag joins me in love to you, Emmy, and the boys!

Yours, as ever,

Romy
