Darling Fink,

Mail call really treated me swell tonight, sweetie. I got your letters of Dec. 18th and 19th, and a Christmas card from Irene and Paul, and also a card from the Coca-Cola gang. It was a real clever little card which read, "Just a little lettuce to dress up my Merry Xmas to you." In a little note provided, they stuck a money order for $5.00. That sure is a swell place to work, and a fine bunch of fellow employees.

I'm glad you got the money order, honey. Yes, darling I'm glad your could put it away for a new outfit. It shouldn't be too much longer, and I'll be seeing you wear it.

Tonight four of us rode to Gessen in a jeep to see "Panama Hattie." The ride was a little cold, but it was worth it. It was a swell show. The theatre itself is very nice too.

Glad you have enough alcohol in the car radiator honey. You've really taken good care of the little rascal. In fact, you've taken good care of everything in my absence, and I'm so proud of you darling. We'll both be glad when I can fire you from your job, and take over my responsibilities again. It's going to be so wonderful coming home from work in the afternoon, and have you waiting for me ready and sweet with a big hug and kiss.

So Jim is saving up his hell raising till I get home. We'll really have some good times, the four of us. Is Maddie still being like she used to? She's a swell kid anyway. And Ben and I can put on our little act again.

Oh darling it's such a good feeling to know that everything we've been dreaming about will be a reality soon. I have my fingers crossed so tight so we'll be together on our anniversary.
It's really cold, and does my little stove burn up wood. Coal doesn't work so good, can't seem to get any heat out of it so I just keep throwing wood in it.

Darling you're such a dear sweet little girl, and every day I love you more and more. I always marvel at how lucky I am to have you for my own precious wife. I'm going to be such a proud kid to be going everywhere and doing everything with you. You're my cuddly lover, and my lovely cuddler, and I'm just existing till that happy day when I can take you in my arms, and never let you go. Oh, lover it's paradise being with you. Everything we do is fun because we're together.

I'm enclosing millions of hugs and kisses and all my love.

Your Own,

Jack
