OFFICE OF THE MAYOR

TOM BRADLEY
MAYOR

May 5, 1989

Mr. Henri Temianka
California Chamber Symphony Orchestra
P.O. Box 64425
Los Angeles, California 90064

Dear Mr. Temianka:

Last year I was thrilled to announce that at last we had reached my goal of $1 million for cultural grants. You can imagine the joy with which I share the news that the city's flourishing economic health plus moneys from the newly created Arts and Cultural Facilities and Services Trust Fund have enabled me to submit a budget to the City Council which has tripled that goal.

You will be delighted to learn that my recommendations to the Council includes $ 8,500 for California Chamber Symphony Orchestra. It pleases me to know that we will assist you to bring your special gifts to our city's residents.

One of my personal desires since I became Mayor of Los Angeles in 1973 was to make Los Angeles a booming cultural center. You have played an important role in achieving that objective. Please accept my warm wishes for a successful year.

Sincerely,

Tom Bradley
