Dearest darling,

I got your Shody Bell of the fourth today sweetie. I'm sorry the mail service is so lousy. I know just how difficult it is to write when the letters don't come in. I'm beginning to think that half the letters don't even get there.

I'm just getting ready to go on guard. It's going to be a swell feeling when I'm a civilian, and won't have to ever pull guard again.

Darling I love you so very much. I hope you don't tire of hearing me say how much I want to come home to you. It's all I can think of anymore. Every day that passes is one closer to that good one honey. Won't we be two happy kids when we're back in each others arms, and all this separation is just a memory. You're such a dear sweet precious sweetheart. I'm going to take you in my arms and never let you go. We have so much lovemaking to catch up on, and how you're going to be loved darling. I'm in paradise when I hold you close. I always try to tell you in a letter how much I love you, and what a precious darling you are, but I never seem to do a very good job of it, but when I come home I'll show you sweetie.

I'll have to wrap this up now honey. all my love and millions of hugs and kisses.

Your lover,
Jack
