Darling Fink,

Tonite I really had a mail call.
Four letters from your sweetie, one from Sis, and one from Sena.

I had the 2 till 6 shift on guard last nite, and this afternoon. Hope I don't have to pull guard too many more times.

That sure sounded like a swell supper Maddie served. She's a swell hostess.

Sis enclosed a picture taken after the wedding. Yourie probably received one too, I imagine. She told me she expected Bill and Dolly the third week in January so maybe they are there as I write this.

Oyes lover it will be so wonderful to be home with you, and it just can't happen too fast for us, can it sweetie?
We have so much love making to catch up on, and so many things we want to do, and so many places to go. Whatever we do or where ever we go it will be wonderful because we're together honey. I love you so very very much, and I'm just existing till that happy day when we can begin to enjoy our good way of life again.

Darling I just can't seem to write a good letter anymore, but when I come home I'll talk a leg off you.

I think I'll hit the hay now, and dream of my darling wife whom I love so very much. All my love and millions of hugs and kisses.

Your lover,
Jack
