It was a pleasure talking to you about a joint fund raising proposal.

We are planning a series of six chamber music concerts to be held at the magnificent Frank Lloyd Wright, Ennis-Brown House in 1988. We would very much like to have your society participate by a) either providing musicians or b) jointly sponsoring one or more of the concerts and sharing the income therefrom.

We have had concerts at the historic house and we are able to seat 200 in our great room which is a combination of our living and dining rooms. The last concert was sponsored by the Da Camera Society, St. Marys College, Dr. Maryanne Bonino director, and the 200 seats were filled at $49.00 per.

If you elect to share a one or more of the concerts with us, we will expect you to assist in the sale of tickets by contacting a list of patrons who support your organization. We would share the income after paying expenses.

If, on the other hand, you would assist us only in providing musicians I would appreciate knowing what an outstanding quartet would cost.

With kindest regards, I am

Cordially,

AUGUST O. BROWN, Curator
