2-13-1945

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #467

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Jack P., "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #467" (1945). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 469.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/469

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Subject Terms

Keywords
U.S.A.; U.S. Soldiers; correspondence; Infantry; postal service; postal stamp; romance; wife; husband; women at home; homesickness; hospital; Britain; injured; medical treatment; Christmas; Holiday; brother; family; money; gift; celebration; post-war hopes; sex; humor;

Identifier
2014.160.wr_Bell_worldwartwo_1945-02-13_010

Copyright
The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for “private study, scholarship, or research” subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.
Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
Co. D Det. of Patients Hosp. Plant-4167
APO 514-A C/o PM New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio
Darling Finke,

Here’s your air mail letter as I promised in the V letter I just wrote. I thought you might get it sooner, and I wanted you to know that my mail had caught up with me, and also to let you know what I thought about having your teeth taken care of. I wish I could be there with you, honey, it might help to make it a little easier for you.

I sure feel as if I’m back “in the know” again. Twenty nine letters from you darling. The other 26 were from Mom and Dad, Bill and Dolly, sis, Madelyn, and of course Christmas cards from a lot of the rest. Ralph Hamlin wrote me a swell letter. I really appreciated it as I know he likes to write about as well as I do, and you know me. Mr. Williamson wrote me a dandy letter too, and enclosed a money order for $25.00. He sure is a top flight boss.

You asked me if I remembered those black and yellow satin pajamas you used to have. Of course I do, sweetie, and I will get you another pair just like them. You have me sort of puzzled this. You said, “they started something clue too.” and asked me if I could remember what it was. Guess you’ll have to tell me, honey. I can’t remember, I know you looked very yummy in them.
Bill told me he thought he'd be reclassified. Has he heard any more about it? Sure hope he doesn't have to come in. I think our family has contributed its share.

I got a dandy letter from Audrey. She sure writes a peppy letter. Swell sense of humor and always cheerful. Also got one from Coleman. He and Lillian were cooking their Christmas dinner as he wrote it, and he wished we were there to help them eat it. They're a fine couple.

I'm glad you got all the money orders. I sent them. Honey. Don't do without anything. I made out pretty well on barbering, and even then you can't spend it. If you don't need it right at present we'll use it when I come home, but I want you to be comfortable now too. So if you need it, don't worry about a bank book. I'll build that up when I come home.

I got a flock of new clothes to try. Have to change the trousers this. They gave me a pair with 29 inch waist, just a little small for a fat kid like me. Jim told me I looked like a barrel. As long as you love me I don't care this. What was it you allowed me, honey—about 400 pounds wasn't it? I had to laugh about that. Do you realize that's pretty heavy?

I'll bet our place really looks keen with new wall paper all around. Sure would like to be parked in my big chair with you on my lap, honey. That is when I'm happiest, with you in my arms nothing can go wrong.
I love you so, darling. You understand me so well. We always seem to share the same moods. You're such a wonderful person to live with, honey. Life is so complete together. I guess I'm like you are, darling. I'm so inarticulate when it comes to putting my thoughts and feelings into a letter, but when we're together again I'll be able to tell you and show you how very much I love you, and how wonderful you are. And what a lot of love I'll have to catch up on. Making sure we're going to have to catch up on. We'll have a month's vacation, and do all those things we've always wanted to do. You know, sweetie, we've only had one week's vacation in the last four years outside of the furloughs we've had since we've been in the army, and those were always pretty much of a mad while just racing against time. We'll really enjoy ourselves on that post war vacation.

You know, Burnley's middle initial is T. It stands for Thomas, but he and I got to calling each other B. Throckmortl and J. Pierpont. Well when Chuck visited me when I was here before he got quite a kick out of it so today I caught three letters from him — one addressed to Pvt. J. Pierpont Bell. I had to laugh at that one. Burnley's wife was expecting a baby when we left the States and I believe she's probably had it by now. I hope everything came out alright 'cause he was really... sweating it out. Pardon the change in paper but I just had three sheets of the other.

The reason I quit writing air mail for a while is because only about 50% of it is flown in the winter. The rest goes by boat. (Now boat, I guess, by the length of time it takes.) But today I had more to write than I could have put in a V mail. It's so much easier for me to write when I get a few letters cause it helps to start the old train of thought. It's funny, darling, the time goes quite fast, but there's seldom anything to write about.

We've been having beautiful weather here. I wish you could have seen a bit of it at home too. You've really had a rough winter. Spring can't be too far away now this February is half gone already. Tomorrow is Valentine Day. Know who my Valentine is this year? I'll give you a little clue. It's the same girl who's been my Valentine for the last eight years. Yes, it doesn't seem that long, does it, darling? And yet in some ways
It seems there's never been a time when I didn't know you. We were meant for each other, darling. All ways and forever.

I have a little pair of tennis shoes they issue for taking exercises in the gym. They sure are nice to wear in the evening as slippers. This place here is to get you back in shape and limber up the sleepy muscles.

Well little sweetheart I guess I've run down for now so I'll put this in the envelope, then put myself in bed and dream of my darling. All my love.

Yours always,

Jack
Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
Co. D Det. of Patients Hosp. Plant 4149
A.P.O. 514-A c/o P.M. New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio
Dearest Fink,

Here’s your air mail letter as I promised in the V letter I just wrote. I thought you might get it sooner, and I wanted you to know that my mail had caught up with me, and also to let you know what I thought about having your teeth taken care of. I wish I could be there with you, honey it might help to make it a little easier for you.

I sure feel as if I’m back, “in the know” again. Twenty nine letters from you darling. The other 26 were from Mom and Dad, Bill and Dolly, Sis, Madelyn, and of course Christmas cards from a lot of the rest. Ralph Hamlin wrote me a swell letter. I really appreciate it as I know he likes to write about as well as I do and you know me. Mr. Williamson wrote me a dandy letter too, and enclosed a money order for $25.00. He sure is a top flight boss.

You asked me if I remembered those black and yellow satin pajamas you used to have. Of course I do, sweetie, and I will get you another pair just like them. You have me sort of puzzled tho’. You said, “they started something else too.” And asked me if I could remember what it was. Guess you’ll have to tell me, honey. I can’t remember. I know you looked very yummy in them.
Bill told me he thought he’d be reclassified. Has he heard any more about it? Sure hope he doesn’t have to come in. I think our family has contributed its share.

I got a dandy letter from Audrey. She sure writes a peppy letter. Swell sense of humor, and always cheerful. Also got one from Coleman. He and Lillian were cooking their Christmas dinner as he wrote it, and he wished we were there to help them eat it. They’re a fine couple.

I’m glad you got all the money orders I sent, honey. Don’t do without anything. I made out pretty well on barbering, and over there you can’t spend it. If you don’t need it right at present we’ll use it when I come home, but I want you to be comfortable now too so if you need it don’t worry about a bank book ‘cause I’ll build that up when I come home.

I got a flock of new clothes tonight. Have to change the trousers tho’. They gave me a pair with 29 inch [strikethrough] inseem[strikethrough] waist. Just a little small for a fat kid like me. Jim told me I looked like a barrel. As long as you love me I don’t care tho’. What was it you allowed me, honey—about 400 pounds wasn’t it? I had to laugh about that. Do you realize that’s pretty heavy?

I’ll bet our place really looks keen with new wall paper all around. Sure would like to be parked in my big chair with you on my lap, lover. That is when I’m happiest; with you in my arms nothing can go wrong.
I love you so, darling. You understand me so well. We allways seem to share the same moods. You’re such a wonderful person to live with, honey. Life is so complete together. I guess I’m like you are, darling. I’m so inarticulate when it comes to putting my thoughts, and feelings into a letter, but when we’re together again I’ll be able to tell you and show you how very much I love you, and how wonderful you are. And what a lot of love making we’re going to have to catch up on. I’ll just have to lock you in my arms, and never let you go. Before I go back to work we’ll have a months vacation, and do all those things we’ve allways wanted to do. You know, sweetie we’ve only had one weeks vacation in the last four years outside of the furloughs I’ve had since I’ve been in the army, and those were allways pretty much of a mad whirl just racing against time. We’ll really enjoy ourselves on that post war vacation.

You know, barley’s middle initial is T. It stands for Thomas, but he and I got to calling each other B. Throckmorton, and J. Pierport. Well when Chuck visited me when I was here before he got quite a kick out of it so today I caught three letters from him – one addressed to Pvt. J. Pierport Bell. I had to laugh at that one. Barley’s wife was expecting a baby when we left the states, and I believe she’s probably had it by now. I hope everything came out alright ‘cause he was really sweating it out. Pardon the change in paper, but I just had three sheets of the other.

The reason I quit writing air mail for a while is because only about 50% of it is flown in the winter. The rest goes by boat (row oat, I guess, by the length of time it takes.) But tonite I had more to write than I could have put in a Vmail. It’s so much easier for me to write when I get a few letters ‘cause it helps to start the old train of thought. It’s funny, darling the Time goes quite fast, but there’s seldom anything to write about.

We’ve been having beautiful weather here. I wish you could have a bit of it at home too. You’ve really had a rough winter. Spring can’t be too far away now tho’. February is half gone already. Tomorrow is Valentine Day. Know who my Valentine is this year? I’ll give you a little clue. She’s the same girl who’s been my valentine for the last eight years. Gee, it doesn’t seem that long, does it, darling? And yet in some ways it seems there’s never been a time when I didn’t know you. We were meant for each other, darling. Always and forever.

I have a little pair of tennis oxfords they issue for taking exercise in the gym. They sure are nice to wear in the evening as slippers. This place here is to get you back in shape, and limber up the sleepy muscles.

Well little sweetheart I guess I’ve run down for now so I’ll put this in the envelope, then put myself in bed and dream of my darling. All my love.

Yours Allways,

[[underline]] Jack [[/underline]]