2-25-1945

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #470

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Jack P., "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #470" (1945). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 472. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/472

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Darling wife,

This was a lucky day for me. Six letters! Two air mail, and a V-mail from you, honey. A V letter each from Mom and Dad, and an air mail from Maude Frey. I'll write this little peed letter now and write you a nice long one later.

I'm glad you're getting your teeth fixed. I'm glad you're getting your teeth fixed.

I'm a brave girl. I was being sweetie. I'm a brave girl. I was being

Madame told me something very nice about you in her letter, but I'll tell you all about it in the long letter. I don't have room on this one.

Honey, you don't have to put the wall paper samples in a package. Why don't you just stick them in an envelope.

All my love, and lots of hugs and kisses.

Your lover,

Jack

England—Feb 25
Darling Wife,

This was a lucky day for me. Six letters! Two airmails, and a V mail from you, honey. A V letter each from Mom, and Dad, and an air mail from Maude Frey. I'll write this little wee letter now, and write you a nice long one later.

I’m glad you’re getting your teeth fixed, sweetie. You’re a brave girl. I was sorry to hear that you’re out of work, but don’t worry about it. A little rest never hurt anyone.

Maddie told me something very nice about you in her letter, but I’ll tell you all about it in the long letter. I don’t have room on this one.

Honey, you don’t have to put the wall paper samples in a package. Why don’t you just stick them in an envelope.

All my love, and lots of hugs and kisses.

Your Lover,

[underline] Jack [/underline]