3-26-1945

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #482

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Jack P., "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #482" (1945). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 484. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/484

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Subject Terms

Keywords
U.S.A.; U.S. Soldiers; correspondence; Infantry; postal service; postal stamp; romance; wife; husband; women at home; homesickness; Britain; celebration; Mother; Father; post-war hopes; comradery;

Identifier
2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1945-03-26_024

Copyright
The Center for American War Letters Archives promotes open access to its collections for "private study, scholarship, or research" subject to the intellectual property rights of others. Chapman University may not hold copyright or intellectual property rights to all items in the collections, and contents may be subject to restricted access or use. As a condition of accessing and using material from the Archives, you agree that you are responsible for obtaining all required consents of any copyright holder and to indemnify and hold the University harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, liabilities, and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that may arise from any third party claims for copyright infringement, torts, or invasion of publicity or privacy rights. You further acknowledge and agree that photocopies or other reproductions may only be made with the University’s prior approval. Requests will be considered on a case by case basis and approval will be in the University’s sole discretion.

This letter is available at Chapman University Digital Commons: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/484
Pvt. John P. Bell 5505 E 475
Co. D Det. of Patients H.P. 4168
APO 118 C/O FM. New York

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

Capt.
England - March 26

My darling,

This mail service is really getting good. I got three letters from you today, and one, an airmail, was written, and postmarked on the 19th. Just a week.

Madelyn's new place sounds plenty alright. Sure glad they have such a cozy little home.

You must be getting very slim, darling. I love you anyway, my sweetie, fat or slim. You're my sweet cutie, and my cute sweetie.

I also had a letter from Mom and Dad, and one from Ben and Lena. Ben says he misses the old get-togethers, and thinks we should really put one on when everyone gets home. Of course I agree with him, don't you?

I didn't get that pass a week ago Sunday which I thought I would, but I got into town yesterday. It was a beautiful day and it sure seemed nice to get into the city. After I leave this place I'll be able to tell you some of the things I've seen. Sometimes I almost wish I had a camera, but it wouldn't be prac.
tire, at all the way I'm knocking around. I'd rather break it or lose it in about a week.

Ken Adams is pretty much of a blowtop, but what he told you is all true. When I left, R. I told me that if you ever needed legal assistance or advice or help in anyway that he'd be only too glad to do anything he could. I believe I told you that at the time. He's a swell boss, and his work is solid.

I talked to Chuck on the phone to night.

Had a poor connection, as usual, but It's good to hear his voice.

Honey, have I told you lately

how wonderful you are? You're such a precious darling. I think of you all day long, and I dream of you at nite,
and I love you more and more each day. I'm wrapping up lots of hugs and kisses, and all my love.

Your Own,

Jack
Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
Co. D. Det. of Patients H.P. 4167
A.P.O. 118 c/o P.M. New York

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

VIA AIR MAIL
Dearest darling,

This mail service is really getting good.
I got three letters from you today, and one, and airmail was written, and postmarked on the 19th. Just a week.

Madelyn’s new place sounds plenty alright.
Sure glad they have such a cozy little home.

You must be getting very slim, darling.
I love you anyway tho’ sweetie-fat or slim.
You’re my sweet cutie, and my cute sweetie.

I also had a letter from Mom and Dad, and one from Ben and Lena. Ben says he misses the old get togethers, and thinks we should really out one on when everyone gets home. Of course I agree with him, don’t you?

I didn’t get that pass a week ago Sunday which I thought I would, but I got into town yesterday. It was a beautyful day, and it sure seemed nice to get into the city. After I leave this place I’ll be able to tell you some of the things I’ve seen. Sometimes I almost wish I had a camera, but it wouldn’t be practical, at all the way I’m knocking around. I’d either break it or lose it in about a week.

Ken Adams is pretty much of a blowtop, but what he told you is all true. When I left, R.J. told me that if you ever needed legal assistance or advice or help in any way that he’d be only too glad to do anything he could. I believed I told you that at the time. He’s a swell boss, and his word is solid.

I talked to Chuck on the phone tonite. Had a poor connection, as usual, but it’s good to hear his voice.

Honey, have I told you lately how wonderful you are? You’re such a precious darling. I think of you all day long, and I dream of you at nite, and I love you more and more each day. I’m wrapping up lots of hugs and kisses, and all my love.

Your Own,

[[underline]] Jack [[/underline]]