Dear Rudi:

Many thanks for remembering us repeatedly in the course of your travels. I made many efforts to reach you by long distance phone in Vienna, but without success. I wanted you for a concert with my orchestra this winter and your agent told me that you were not available. Before taking no for an answer I wanted to discuss it with you personally.

Please let me know what your plans are for the 77-78 season, as I would love to have you here again.

With all good wishes to you and your lovely family in the holiday season and 1977, in which Emmy and our boys join me.

Yours ever,
