My dear Rudi:

We think of you often, and nothing would give me greater pleasure than to hear you play Mozart and Schubert again. I sincerely hope that your career moves along commensurate with your great talent.

You may recall the video tape "From Bach to Rock" in which you so brilliantly participated in the fall of 1967. This tape as well as others of our video tape "Meet The Masters" series has been successfully shown to the enlightenment and education of many a child and adult.

Due to an oversight (of which our legal counsel advises me) we were remiss in asking for your written release at the time of taping.

However, belatedly may I ask you to attend to it now? Kindly sign the enclosed forms. Keep the copy, and return the original to me immediately in the self-addressed stamped envelope.

Kind personal regards to you and your family,

Auf baldiges Wiedersehen,

Cordially yours,

Werner Gebauer, Ph.D.
