Dear Mr. Temianka:

May I thank you for your kind and personal letter written to friends and past contributors only.

Like most of your admirers, I was very much looking forward receiving my invitation for this year's concert series.

Well - I am delighted it arrived, and I am eagerly looking forward to celebrate your tenth anniversary of your musical series at the Getty Museum, together with all your other faithful friends.

As the new president of the Jewish Club of 1933, Inc., and the editor of our monthly Mitteilungsblatt, I am enclosing two copies of our April issue, in the hope you will find time to look at our planned "Benefit Concert" announcement on the second page!

Any assistance you could give us - telling your friends and musicians about this special concert, asking them to join us at this event - would be tremendously appreciated by our Club and would be a wonderful and worthwhile contribution to the "JEWISH HOMES FOR THE AGING OF GREATER LOS ANGELES".

Sincerely yours,

Annelise B. Bunzel
