Dear Mr. Temianka,

I have not forgotten your letter of a long while ago (March 6), in which you asked me for an "interesting" photograph of myself.

I am afraid I cannot give you that, but I send you herewith an ordinary "studio portrait" which I hope is not too bad and may serve to remind you of our short association here.

We shall always remember the very pleasant hours of music which you gave us, here and elsewhere; we are very grateful for that, and we were very glad to make your acquaintance. I hope that our paths may cross again some time and somewhere.

With best wishes from both of us,

I am,

yours very sincerely,

Alexander Cadogan
