Dear Henri:

I don't know what I did to deserve such a generous and warm-hearted note from you, but whatever it is or was I hope I can do it again. And soon!

I envy you your stay at Banff -- we had an unforgettable week there a couple of years ago, and truly enjoyed the hotel's manager...uh...what's his name...Ivor?...Anyway, a charming gent, and what incredible scenery. Imagine falling in love with a river, but that's the way I feel about the Bow. (Or do you prefer the String?) Anyway, your letter was glorious and I do thank you, Henri.

All best always,

Herb Caen
