My dear Jehanne,

Many thanks for your very lovely letter of October 29. Emmy and I look forward with great joy to your visit to Los Angeles. The invitation from the French Consul General is being sent to you, but I am holding the tickets for the concert on November 17 and shall give them to you when we see you.

Where, and how long will you be staying in Los Angeles, and when can you have lunch or dinner with us, or supper after the concert? We shall try to arrange everything at your convenience. Also, if you need transportation to the party or the concert we shall try to arrange things for you. So please give us all possible information.

With affectionate greetings from Emmy and me,

Yours always,

Henri Temianka
