TO: HENRI
FROM: ABRAM
DATE: June 10, 1980
SUBJECT: One Temianka!

Although your highly valued letter of June 7 was an acknowledgement of my inadequate words of tribute to you, I would be undeserving of it if I did not immediately tell you how deeply grateful and touched I am of such appreciation from you and yours.

We've lived through many things together, you and I, and we have always tried for excellence. In the long run, it is not at odds with human worth. One can be virtuous without being moral and moral without being virtuous, but art itself keeps one's life busy and bubbling and useful to others. Let's never stop! In affectionate admiration ever,
