Dear Henri:

Please excuse what is really an inexcusable delay in acknowledging your gracious inscription to me on that fine photo of us done by Joe Hammer. I appreciate it enormously and shall always consider it a nostalgic souvenir of our welcome re-union.

I do wish we could see more of each other (I also fell very hard for your beautiful and charming wife!) but I know what your life is like, and mine too has been over-crowded, including activities at BOTH Universities (see enclosed), but then I was always no less a Football Fan than a Basketball Fan.

Once again my warmest thanks and please convey them to your lovely lady for her delightful hospitality when I came to your home following the UCLA concert I enjoyed so much.

Ever cordially, and with affectionate admiration,

(The Official Title!) Professor Abram Chasins
