California Chamber Symphony
2915 Patricia Avenue
Los Angeles, California 90064

Dear Maestro Temianka:

I was pleased to learn that the Hong Kong Urban Council has honored the California Chamber Symphony by asking that it return to Hong Kong in December of this year. In addition, I understand that negotiations are now in progress for the Symphony to travel and perform in the People's Republic of China as well.

For more than twenty years, the California Chamber Symphony has brought a high standard of artistry and new experiences in music to audiences in California. I know that the Symphony would ably represent our State in sharing these same experiences with musicians and audiences in the People's Republic of China.

As it has been said that music is the universal language of mankind. Such cultural and artistic exchanges are important to promoting friendship between nations. I applaud and enthusiastically support your efforts to arrange this visit with our neighbors in the Far East.

Sincerely,
