Darling lover,

I've just come back from Bad Neuenheim, and I found three letters from you. Oh darling I love to get your letters. So I'll just write a few lines, and then maybe you'll get two letters all in the same day. I wrote one in B. Neuenheim.

Sweetie, that was a wonderful poem you wrote me. I love it - so. You made a real word picture of us honey.

Darling you asked me if I still wanted to see you in outfits. You know I do sweetie. I've been wanting to ask you to describe me some of those tantalizing little outfits ever since I've been overseas, but I was afraid you'd be angry. You didn't used to like me to ask you. Oh darling, you were always so cute when you'd get dressed up for me. Do you think it would be a good idea to let Dolly take pictures of you honey? She might think me a pervert or talk to other people about them. You know how Dolly is, she likes to talk. Maybe it will just be better if you describe them for me lover, and then I can see you in them.

in person when I come home. Of course I remember the French maid outfit you wore sweetie. Gimmy!

I'm going to bed now, and dream of my little darling whom I love so very much, and I'll be waiting impatiently to hear about some of the darling little outfits you'll wear for me when I come home. In fact sweetie anytime you can't think of much to write in a letter describe some for me. I love it.

I'm enclosing millions of hugs and kisses and all my love.

Yours lover,

Jack
