

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

---

Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

---

10-24-1945

1945-10-24, Jack to Evabel

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell\_collection

---

Recommended Citation

Bell, Jack P., "1945-10-24, Jack to Evabel" (1945). Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection. 600.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell\_collection/600

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

---

1945-10-24, Jack to Evabel

Keywords

October, 1945; 1945; United States; New York, N.Y.; Elyria, Ohio; army; soldiers; troops; quartermasters; correspondence; postal service; wife; husband; women at home; women; love; romance; Lich, Germany; Germany; periodical; news; recreation and entertainment; cinema; motion pictures; company; military unit; marching and drills; training; leisure; travel; automobiles; pictures; photography; holiday; Halloween; friendship

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1945-10-24_014

Pfc. John P. Bell 35052495
279th. QM Reg. Co. AP0758
1/8 PM New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

Mail Jam Broken, APO Claims

By LESTER BERNSTEIN
Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Oct. 23—Theater postal authorities today came up with facts and figures to explain recent delays in the dispatch of States-bound air mail and to assure GIs that their letters now are flying home without delay for the first time this month.

A recent New York dispatch recorded the complaint of redeployed troops that they were beating their own letters to the States and reported anxious inquiries from letterless correspondents of men still in Europe.

Today's announcement disclosed that high priority cargo and passengers had been "bumping" air mail on ATC planes. As a result the planes were unable to carry the 22,500 pounds of mail daily allocated by the theater priorities board—an allocation large enough to cover all westbound air mail.

The situation grew so bad early in the month that on Oct. 8 and 9 it became necessary to dispatch a total of 104,300 pounds of air mail by fast ships. This represented about 4,700,000 letters, or 37 per cent of all the air mail originating in the theater during the first 15 days of October.

Those letters, it was announced, will be delayed in delivery from ten days to two weeks over the time it would have taken them to reach their destinations had they been flown.

But the backlog of lingering letters now has been cleared up, and the air mail situation is "current"—postal talk meaning that the letters are not staying in any one place more than 24 hours. As of 6 PM yesterday, 12,676 pounds—570,420 letters—were on hand on the Continent and 1,400 pounds—63,000 letters—were in the UK awaiting air dispatch, but none of this mail had been there a full day.

Lick
October 24

Darling wife,

It looks as if your mail should be coming thru' a little better now sweetie. I read in the S+S today where it had been screwing up here on the continent, and none of it had been going air mail to the states, but now they have it straightened out again so I'm hoping my letters will be getting to you faster.

Three of us went to the show tonite. I didn't care too much for it. "Music for Millions." The music was good, but the story itself was strictly from hunger.

You know honey in a way the time has really been going fast here. I like it much better than the 78th. We don't have any formations here. The CQ calls you at 6:30 in the morning, then we sleep another half hour, and go to breakfast. Then we sweep and straighten up our cots, and around eight o'clock go to work.

Darling I'm always thinking of the grand times we've had together, and how wonderful the future is going to be. I'm so happy when I'm with

you. It doesn't matter what we do as long as we're together. You're such a dear sweet darling. I love you so very much sweetheart that it seems I couldn't possibly love you more, and yet every day I love you more and more. You're my cute sweetie and my sweet cutie, and I'm just existing till the happy day when I come home, and we'll never be separated again.

Remember how we'd start out in the car in the winter time, and you'd try the heater, and say "Cold heat was coming out." I'm always thinking of all the cute little things you do and say. Oh darling it's going to be so wonderful when I can walk up behind you, and lift your hair, and kiss your sweet little neck. Being with you is such sweet paradise.

I just took a little peek at the pictures you sent me lover. Oh sweetie it's going to be so nice to see you in person. Your flesh is so sweet and smooth. All your sweet dimples are going to be kissed so tenderly darling. Just remind me to take it easy and not eat you up baby Fink. We'll have such a wonderful time when I come home. We'll have a month just for ourselves, and make it a honeymoon. As far as that goes lover we've been on a honeymoon ever since we got married, haven't we sweetie? We'll always keep it that way honey. In this month's vacation we're going to have we won't plan a thing we'll just do whatever we want to when we want to. Will you like that darling?

Another six days till Halloween. Remember the last Halloween I was home, and your Aunt had the party in Ralph and Edith's basement? That was really a good one. Remember how Jean McDonald was drinking wine, and got meaner than a snake?

Well sweetie I think I'll hit the hay and dream of my darling wife whom I love so very much. All my love and millions of hugs and kisses.

Your own,
Jack

[JACK P. BELL CORRESPONDENCE OCTOBER 1945 #14]

[Page 1 – Envelope]

Pfc. John P. Bell 35052495
279th. QM Ref. Co. APO 758
C/O PM New York, N.Y.

[[Image: Military
post-mark stamp, print text
“U.S. ARMY / POSTAL SERVICE / A.P.O.”,
circling date: “588 / 1945
25 / OCT”]]

Free

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio

[Page 2 – Newspaper clipping]

[[Clipping describing how mail would begin moving more freely between GIs and civilians]]

[Page 3 – Back of Clipping]

[[Back of clipping, depicting a photograph overlaid with comic characters.]]

[Page 4 – Letter continued]

Lich

October 24

Darling wife,

It looks as if your mail should be coming thru' a little better now sweetie. I read in the S [&] S today where it had been screwing up here on the continent, and none of it had been going air mail to the states, but now they have it straightened out again so I'm hoping my letters will be getting to you faster.

Three of us went to the show tonite. I didn't care too much for it. "Music for Millions." The music was good, but the story itself was strictly from hunger.

You know honey in a way the time has really been going fast here. I like it much better than the 78th. We don't have any formations here. The CQ calls you at 6:30 in the morning, then we sleep another half hour, and go to breakfast. Then we sweep and straighten up our cots, and around eight o'clock go to work.

Darling I'm always thinking of the grand times we've had together, and how wonderful the future is going to be. I'm so happy when I'm with you. It doesn't matter what we do as long as we're together. You're such a dear sweet darling. I love you so very much sweetheart that it seems I couldn't possibly love you more, and yet every day I love you more and more. You're my cute sweetie and my sweet cutie, and I'm just existing till the happy day when I come home, and we'll never be separated again.

[Page 5 – Letter continued]

- 2 -

Remember how we'd start out in the car in the winter time, and you'd try the heater and say cold heat was coming out? I'm always thinking of all the cute little things you do and say. Oh darling it's going to be so wonderful when I can walk up behind you, and lift your hair, and kiss your sweet little neck. Being with you is such sweet paradise.

I just took a little peek at the pictures you sent me lover. Oh sweetie it's going to be so nice to see you in person. Your flesh is so sweet and smooth. All your sweet dimples are going to be kissed so tenderly darling. Just remind me to take it easy and not eat you up baby Fink. We'll have such a wonderful time when I come home. We'll have a month just for ourselves, and make it a honeymoon. As far as that goes lover we've been on a honeymoon ever since we got married, haven't we sweetie? We'll always keep it that way honey. In this month's vacation we're going to have we wont [sic] plan a thing we'll just do whatever we want to when we want to. Will you like that darling?

[Page 5 – Letter continued]

- 3 -

Another six days till Halloween. Remember the last Halloween I was home, and your club had the party in Ralph and Edith's basement? That was really a good one. Remember how Jean McDonald was drinking wine, and got meaner than a snake?

Well sweetie I think I'll hit the hay and dream of my darling wife whom I love so very much. All my love and millions of hugs and kisses.

Your own,
[[underscore]] Jack [[/underscore]]