Darling Wife,

It's a real autumn nite here. The wind is blowing, and it's quite cool. Had guard from six till ten tonite so I'll take it easy tomorrow. I know I'm going to have to work much harder when I'm a civilian once again, but it's going to be a nice feeling to know that when I finish work in the afternoon the evening is mine.

No mail today, but I can't complain as it has been coming in very good. Soon now I'll probably be getting mail directly to this address. I hope my mail to you is coming better now sweetie.

I had to take the head off a compressor motor today to put a new gasket on. After I got the whole thing back together the darn thing really ran.

bed now and dream of my little sweetheart whom I love so very very much.

I'm enclosing millions of hugs and kisses and all my love.

Your own,
Jack

Was I surprised.

Darling we could really take some nice trips this time of year. Oh well any time of year is good as far as that goes.
We'll have such swell times. We'll just get in the car and go wherever we want. On some of these cool evenings we'll probably just want to sit at home and read. I used to enjoy that so much, didn't you darling?

Sure it doesn't really matter what we do as long as we're together. Just being near you is paradise for me.
You're such a dear precious wife, and I always marvel at how lucky I am to have you for my own. I love you so very much honey, and I'm just existing till the day when I come home to you.

Darling this isn't much of a letter, but I'll try to do better tomorrow. I'll go to
