Darling Fink,

I got your letter of the seventeenth tonight sweetie. I guess the mail is really screwed up as you got my change of address even before you got my other letters telling you I was transferring, and not to write until I had a new address. I'm glad you didn't stop writing anyway honey as they've forwarded the mail so fast it's really been nice, and I was only without mail a little less than two weeks.

Darling, here is a request for a package for Christmas, and if you can get them put some shorts in for me please. Size 32. I know that stuff is hard to get now or was so if you can't don't feel badly about it. I signed a statement of charges for three pair in the 78th, and left there before they got them for me. The supply here is sort of screwed up so I may not get them for a while.

Yes, honey I started writing P.F. on the envelope. It's really a big joke. I wouldn't sew one of those stripes on my sleeve to win a bet tho'!

Darling I love you so very much. How can you be so dear and sweet and good and precious and darling all at once? I'm the luckiest fellow in the world to have you for my very own. When I come home we're going to celebrate all the holidays rolled into one, but mostly we'll just celebrate being together sweetie. We'll do everything and go everyplace we've wanted to for so long. And we'll make love day and nite. You're such a sweet-lover I won't be able to leave you alone for a minute. How you're going to be hugged and kissed lover. You'll have to keep reminding me to take it easy on your ribs tho' darling 'cause I'll want to hold you so tight. So close that I'll almost be behind you darling.

I saw a good show last nite. Dennis Morgan in "God is my Copilot." It's really a pleasure to go to a movie here. You never have to stand in line, and there are always plenty of seats.

Well darling, I think I'll go to bed and dream of the dearest and darlingest and best wife in all the world. I'm enclosing millions of hugs and kisses and all my love.

Your own,
Jack
