11-2-1945

Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #606

Jack P. Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation
Bell, Jack P., "Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence #606" (1945). Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection. 608. https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/608

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell World War Two Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.
Pfc. John P. Bell 35052495
279th. PQ. Ref. G. AP0758
c/o P.M. New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio
Darling lover,

I'm sitting here on my cot in a nice clean pair of pajamas feeling like a million. I really enjoy these pajamas sweetie.

Went to the show tonight and saw, "The Women in the Window." I'd seen it before, but it's a good picture, and was worth seeing again.

I told you in last night's letter that I was going to Brussels tonight. For some reason or other they cancelled the Brussels passes at the base depot so that's out for the time. I'm not disappointed tho' 'cause I never count on anything in this army.

Darling I love you so very much. I'm always thinking of how wonderful it will be when we're together doing all these things we're writing about now. Like how grand it is to spend these cool months reading, I used to enjoy that so much when we'd go to the library, and get an armful of books. Or maybe we'd draw the blinds in the living room, and spend the evening making love. Or we'd be in one of our playful moods, and maybe you'd put on a little outfit for me. Oh, lovers no matter what we do it's wonderful because we are together! You're such a dear sweet lover girl that I'll just want to be hugging you and kissing you all the time.

I think I'll crawl into bed now sweetie. I'll see you in my dreams. All my love and millions of hugs and kisses.

Yours ever,

Jack
Pvt. John P. Bell 35052495
279th QM Ref. Co. APO758
c/o PM New York, N.Y.

Mrs. Jack Bell
345 W. River St.
Elyria, Ohio
Dearest Lover,

I’m sitting here on my cot in a nice clean pair of pajamas feeling like a million. I really enjoy these pajamas sweetie.

Went to the show, tonite and saw, “The Woman in the Window.” I’d seen it before, but it’s a good picture, and was worth seeing again.

I told you in last nite’s letter that I was going to Brussels tonite. For some reason or other they cancelled the Brussels passes at the base depot so that’s out for this time. I’m not disappointed tho’ ‘cause I never count on anything in this army.

Darling I love you so very much. I’m always thinking of how wonderful it will be when we’re together doing all these things we’re writing about now. Like how grand it is to spend these cool nites reading. I used to enjoy that so much when we’d go to the library, and get an armful of books. Or maybe we’d draw the blinds in the living room, and spend the evening making love. Or we’d be in one of our playful moods, and maybe you’d put on a little outfit for me. Oh lover no matter what we do it’s wonderful because we are together. You’re such a dear sweet lover girl that I’ll just want to be hugging you and kissing you all the time.

I think I’ll crawl into bed now sweetie. I’ll see you in my dreams. All my love and millions of hugs and kisses.

Your Own,

[underline] Jack [[/underline]]