Monsieur Michel BOUTINARD-ROUELLE
Le President des Concours Internationaux
de la Ville de Paris
Direction des Affaires culturelles
Paris, France

My Dear Monsieur Boutinard-Rouelle:

Please forgive me for dictating this letter in English. I trust you have received my handwritten letter of acceptance of September 22, in response to your letter of September 8, inviting me to serve on the jury of the "Concours International Yehudi Menuhin" from Tuesday, June 15 to Friday, June 25, 1982.

As the Competition is due to begin less than 6 months from now, I assume that you are about to distribute the brochures with detailed information for those wishing to enter. As I am receiving many inquiries, would you be kind enough to send me several brochures (a dozen if you can spare them), as well as any other materials available for distribution.

Also, kindly advise me whether hotel reservations are being made for the jury members, or whether I should give instructions to my travel agent in this regard. Accommodations will undoubtedly be at a premium in Paris during June.

With my cordial thanks in advance.

Yours sincerely,

Henri Temianka
