Monsieur Michel Boutinard-Rouelle, President
Concours Internationaux de la Ville de Paris
17, boulevard Morland - Bureau 7123
75181 Paris Cedex 04 - FRANCE

Dear Monsieur Boutinard-Rouelle:

As the Yehudi Menuhin International Competition, under your distinguished patronage, is now only 4½ months away, I would be most grateful if you could provide me with further details regarding the travel and hotel arrangements to which you referred in your letter of 8 September 1981. What procedures are to be followed?

My wife and I plan to arrive in Paris towards the end of May and to remain most of the month of June. It would be helpful to know whether I am responsible for making my own hotel reservations, as hotels will undoubtedly be heavily booked at that time of the year, and I would like to finalize arrangements without further delay. We expect to fly directly from Los Angeles to Paris via Air France. Should I make my own reservations and charge the cost of my ticket to your office?

It would also be helpful for me to know the location of the Competition. I am concerned lest a communication from you may have been lost in the mail, as I have still not received any brochure announcing the Competition, and have received no communication from you since I accepted the official invitations which you and Mr. Menuhin extended to me last September.

Thanking you in advance for your reply, and looking forward with greatest pleasure to the "Concours International Yehudi Menuhin".

Yours sincerely,

HT/gv

HENRI TEMIANKA
